Terms of Use

Please carefully review the following Terms of Use (“Terms of Use”). These Terms of Use constitute a legal document that governs your use of the website and any material contained on the website. By using the website, you agree to and accept these Terms of Use. The website is intended for use only by visitors who are located in the United States.

Ownership of the Website

The website and all of its contents (including, but not limited to, text, graphics, audio clips, logos, buttons, images, downloads, data compilations, software, icons, html codes and xml codes), as well as all copyright, trademark and other rights therein, are owned by our Firm or its third-party information providers and are protected by United States and international intellectual property laws.

Your Right to Use the Website

We grant you a limited, non-transferable right to view, store, bookmark, download and print pages of the website solely for your personal, non-commercial purposes, provided that if you copy any materials from the website, you must not remove any copyright or other proprietary notices from such copies.

No Advisory Services

Information posted on this website is for informational purposes only. Although we may provide data, information, and content relating to financial planning, tax planning, estate planning, and other wealth management topics, you should not construe any such information as tax, legal, or investment advice. All illustrations are for informational purposes only, and any performance returns referenced are based on past performance and in no way represent a guarantee of future results. You are responsible for evaluating the information provided to you and any risk and reward associated with the material before making any decision based on data, information, and content on the website. You acknowledge and agree that our firm is not acting in any fiduciary capacity, nor is any fiduciary relationship created, as a result of your use of, or access to, the website. Investing carries the risk of loss, including the loss of principal.
